

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

.....
IN RE:

COLEEN BURNS,

DEBTOR,

AL QUAN CADE, JR.

MOVANT,

VS.

COLEEN BURNS,

AND

JACK N. ZAHAROPOULOS, CHAPTER 13 TRUSTEE,

RESPONDENTS
.....

CHAPTER 13

CASE NO. 5-19-04098-HWV

MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY

ORDER

AND NOW, upon consideration of the Motion of Al Quan Cade, Jr. any responses thereto, and after an opportunity of a hearing, the Court finds that there is presently pending in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County at No. 2021-CV-04832 an action for negligence against the Debtor, Coleen Burns and others, and that the potential exposure of the Defendant/Debtor Coleen Burns arising from such claim is presently covered by a policy or policies of insurance and that further said carrier(s) is/are providing the Defendant/Debtor Coleen Burns with a defense to said claim and providing counsel to the Defendant/Debtor at its expense, now therefore it is hereby ORDERED and DECREED that the Motion of Al Quan Cade, Jr. is GRANTED and Movant is authorized to proceed with the litigation pending in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, Pennsylvania against the Defendant/Debtor, Coleen Burns and others on the condition that any recovery against Debtor, by way of a verdict or settlement, shall be limited to any and all insurance coverage available to Debtor in the state court action including any primary, excess and/or umbrella coverage directly or indirectly applicable to Debtor including all insurance coverage which may be available to Debtor through any defendant in the state court action.